

Letter Q

www.kidsacademy.mobi

Now that you're done with the letter P, we'll be tackling the letter Q. There are so many fun things to do with this letter. First and foremost, make sure you put up the letter Q in your child's learning space. The more they see it, the more familiar it gets. Another tip is to make sure you talk about the letter with your child, describe it, its shape, its sound, in what words you see it. This will help them discover its key features in a constructive way. You can then confirm their speculations through watching this Kids Academy Letter Q Video together. Last but not least, it is very helpful to incorporate some fun to the learning process. In this article, we'll recommend 5 activities you can provide your child with to help them learn the letter Q.

Watch on YouTube

Activities

- Letter Q Coloring Sheet: This letter Q coloring sheet is one of the many great resources our Kids Academy website offers parents to help them teach their preschoolers the alphabet. It helps your child learn the shape and sound of the letter Q through coloring, where the first exercise exposes the child to the shape of the letter, and the second exposes them to the sound it makes by providing words that start with the letter Q, 'question' and 'queen', and their images, for your child to color in.

Letter Q

Color in the letter "Q".

Say the name of each picture. What letter do those words start with?
Color in the images below.

QUESTION

QUEEN

Copyright © 2017 Kids Academy Company. All rights reserved

Get more worksheets at www.kidsacademy.mobi

- Letter Q Tracing Page: This letter Q tracing sheet is another sample of the great resources the Kids Academy website offers. Tracing is a very important skill that your child needs to practice in order to develop their motor skills, which are crucial for their future writing skills. In this worksheet, your child will learn how to trace the letter Q, as well as learn new vocabulary that start with this letter, such as 'queen' and 'quarter'.

Qq

Trace and write the capital letter Q.
Start at the big red dot.

Trace and write the lowercase letter q.
Start at the big red dot.

Trace the Q and the q to complete each word.

- Q is for Queen: For this activity, you'll need a big Letter Q made of construction paper, a cutout of a queen's crown, and some craft gems. Have your child decorate the crown with the gems and glue the crown onto the letter Q.
- Q-tip Painting: Q-tips are a versatile tool for kids to explore, and they make a great addition to the letter Q lesson. They can be used in many different ways, one idea can be coloring a printout of the letter Q with a Q-tip dipped in paint. Another idea can be coloring in a printout a Quail image to further emphasize the letter Q in context. To make it more interesting, you can bundle together a few Q-tips to make several dots at once.

- Quilting: To help your child learn the lowercase form of the letter Q, print out a bubble lowercase q on a piece of paper, and cut small fabric squares from old clothes. Have your child quilt the letter by gluing the fabric squares on the paper. Having a pretty end result is an additional perk to the activity!

In one week, your child will master the letter Q and will be able to continue to learn the letter R. The fun addition that the activities add to your child's learning process will no doubt be a welcome one. If you're looking for more similar learning resources, visit the Kids Academy website where you can find worksheets, videos, games and much more!

