

Daily Knowledge Boost with Kids Academy: Civic Studies for 3rd Grade

www.kidsacademy.mobi

Learning about the way the U.S government works as a child in 3rd grade is very important to their growth and development. At this age, children start to better understand more abstract concepts, introducing government structure helps them see how laws and decisions are made. It also helps children learn about their rights and responsibilities building a foundation to their participation in society.

Today's daily knowledge boost gives children a chance to explore Citizen Rights' and Freedom, Laws and Governance, and the Three Branches of Government.

All the lessons can be accessed in the simple interactive Kids Academy Classroom interface. It allows you to use our ready-made lessons or create new ones, share them with your children and track your students' progress.

Lesson 1: Citizen's Rights and Freedom

In this lesson children will further explore Independence day, the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. Students will be introduced to the documents that have shaped the United States, focusing on the themes of rights and freedoms.
